1. On 17 February 1954, 35 sedans occupied by senior officers of various branches of service were seen on route toward Beyersdorf, coming from the direction of Wiederau and Uebigau (N 52/E 84).

 Half an hour before, motorcyclists dropped sentries wearing red-bordered black epaulets and red brassards with black-bordered letter P at important road crossings. The posts were withdrawn after the column had passed. 25X1 numerous trucks, guns and armored scout cars were assembled in the wooded area around Saxdorf (?). On 17 February, several trucks occupied by troops passed through Wiederau on the Berlin-Dresden highway, proceeding toward Berlin. 25X1

2. Between 6:20 p.m. on 9 February, a column of 2 armored scout cars, 3 guns, 4 to 6 armored personnel carriers occupied by troops and about 25 motorcycles was seen on Stalinallee, Oranienburg, coming from a western direction and proceeding eastward 25X1
 with the armored scout cars and armored personnel carriers. 25X1

3. On 20 February, a train of 17 flatcars with sideracks and 16 boxcars carrying 21 trucks, 3 trailers, 2 generators, 3 prime movers and about 200 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets arrived at the Kammersdorf railroad station from the direction of Bernburg/Saale. 25X1

7. At 3 p.m. on 19 February, a shipment of 8 to 12 x 152-mm gun howitzers and a shipment of 8 to 12 heavy howitzers, both shipments with prime movers, were seen at the Wildpark freight station, ready to leave toward west.

25X1

1. Comment. Possibly a command-post exercise of the First or Third Gds Mech Army.

25X1

2. Comment. the unit belonged to the engineer regiment of the GOFG from Bernburg, rather than the armored engineer company.

25X1

3. Comment. presumably an AAA shipment of the First Gds Mech Army from Dresden to Wustrow.

25X1

4. Comment. The information confirms the enlargement of the Zeitz Forest training area.
